Commission on the Status of Women

Legal Authority

The Commission on the Status of Women was created by the County of San Bernardino Board of Supervisors in December 1974 to work to eliminate inequities in laws, practices and conditions which affect women, to give consultative and technical advice on issues of concern to women, to promote means by which women can realize their full potential, and provide information to the public and the Board of Supervisors on the special needs of women, Resolution No. R-74-275.

The laws of the County of San Bernardino, the Commission's Bylaws, and Robert's Rules of Order (latest edition) govern the Commission. On June 12, 2007, the Commission on the Status of Women unanimously approved revisions to their Bylaws.

Regular meetings are on the fourth Tuesday of the month, with a minimum of ten (10) scheduled meetings per year.

OUR MISSION

The Commission on the Status of Women is a non-partisan organization that works to advance the causes of all women and seeks to identify and eliminate inequities that affect their lives. To this end, the Commission informs, educates, advises its constituencies, and promotes a means by which women and girls of San Bernardino County are empowered to realize their potential and contribute more fully to society.
